

CONTENTS.

—●●●—
VOL. IX.
—●●●—

No. 1.—A Letter to William England, Doctor in Divinity, &c. Letter to Mr. Peel, with a Petition to the King by R. Carlile. Correspondence from a friend, with remarks on a letter to the Rev. Robert Hindmarsh. Riego; an account of his murder. Mina; notice of his arrival in this country. Letter from a GREENWICH YOUTH. Riego, Spain, Ferdinand, by X.

No. 2.—An address to the Republicans of the island of Albion, on the approaching birth-day of Thomas Paine. Letter from Mr. James Watson. Extract of a letter from a friend. Note by R. Carlile on the controversy with J. E. C. Biblical anecdotes of the "Man after God's own heart." Letter from an Edinburgh friend. Justice of Jehovah. Prospectus of the Artisan. The Captive, a sonnet, by Allen Davenport. Poetical motto, with a subscription to Mrs. Wright.

No. 3.—A grand review of pamphlets. Letter from a friend, with an extract from Neal's History of New England, relating to the persecutions of the Quakers, and observation by R. Carlile. Letter from and to the Rev. William Wait, of Bristol. Song for Paine's birth-day. Subscription from Stokesley. Republicanism contrasted with monarchy, by Mr. Eustace, an extract from his "Classical Tour in Italy."

No. 4.—An address to the Republicans of the Island of Albion. Letter from Stockport, by Thomas Mackintosh. Correspondence with Dr. England. Letter to the Reverend Mr. Richman of Dorchester. Monarchy, and War, Reflections by R. Carlile. Letter from and to Mr. James Affleck of Edinburgh. Letter from Mr. Robert Affleck. Lines to the Memory of Riego.

No. 5.—On the AGE OF THE WORLD. Letter from and to Mr. William Henry Steuart, of Dundee. To Mr. Robert Williams Andrews, Keeper of Dorchester Gaol, To C. B. Wollaston, Esq. Dorchester. To the Christian Judge Bailey. Letter from I. G. From a Clergyman to his Friend, who had lent him a copy of the "New Trial of the Witnesses;" with an answer by A. B.

No. 6.—Celebration of Paine's birth day in London, Birmingham, and Huddersfield. To the Editor of the Republican by Epicurus. To Mr. R. Carlile, subscription from St. John's Horselydown. Letter from and to Mr. William Drinkwater, Salford, Manchester. Subscriptions from Birmingham.

No. 7.—Letter to Rabbi Solomon Herchell, High Priest of the Jews in London. Dr. Watson to Mr. Carlile, upon mind and memory being produced by matter in motion, and not by a Divinity. To the Republicans of Albion, by W. V. Holmes. Song by Joseph Rhodes. Curious history of a calumny on Thomas Paine, exposed by Mr. Cobbett.

No. 8.—An address to the Republicans of the Island of Albion. Petition for religious freedom presented to the House of Commons in the Session for 1823. Celebration of Paine's Birth day in various parts of London and in Stockport. Letter from William Cross, of Sheffield. Reason versus Revelation. Letter from and to Mr. Mercer, of Hyde, near Manchester. Letter from and to Mr. Bycroft of Bowling near Bradford. Erratum in the article on the AGE OF THE WORLD in No. 5. Letter from and to Mr. Richard Hassell of Cerne. From Euphronius of Spalding.

No. 9.—To Correspondents. Discussion with J. E. C. Ode to Religion. Celebration of Paine's Birth day in Leeds.—To Spaniards, lines by Brian Borhoime of Portsea. Fourth subscription from Liverpool.

No. 10.—Lord Byron's Vision of Judgment.—Mr. Owen to the British Government. Letter from Stokesly by A.

No. 11.—Letter to the Reverend Robert Hindmarsh. Notes with £5. from NEMO.

No. 12.—Letter to the Reverend Robert Hindmarsh continued.

No. 13.—Conclusion of the letter to the Reverend Robert Hindmarsh. To the Editor of the Republican by a Partizan of Free Discussion. From Mr. William Smith of Bolton. To Mr. Carlile with Twenty Pounds by an Enemy to Persecution. Jove and the Sinners. Gaol Matters—Letters to C. B. Wollaston, Esq. To George Garland, Esq., the High Sheriff for Dorset and to the Honourable Sir James Burrough, Knt., Judge of Assize.

No. 14.—Letter to the Reverend John Davis, of Cerne; by Richard Hassell. To do. by R. Carlile. Galpins substitute for argument. Correspondence between Andrew A. Dean and Thomas Paine. Scientific Lectures delivered in a Chapel. On God and Heaven by B. Letter and subscription from Mr. William Paine of Bath.

No. 15.—To Subscribers. Notice of the new Deistical Sect in Dublin. Letter from and to Mr. Abel Hellowell of Huddersfield. Song for Paine's Birth day composed and sung at Bath. To the Editor of the Republican by Z. Correspondence between Mrs. Wright and the Nottingham Committee for relieving the persecuted friends of Reform. Letter from and to Mr. Gavin Park of Glasgow. From and to Mr. Clark of Ripon. From and to Mr. William Taylor of Aberdeen. From E. R. Extract on Political Superstition from Barlow's advice to the privileged orders.

No. 16.—Further discussion on the question of intellect or no intellect.

lect, design or no design, in the arrangements of the Universe, with J. E. C., with M., and from a Devon Bookseller and Bookreader. Letter from and to Mr. William Skinner of Kirkaldy. To Mr. William M'Gavin of Glasgow, by John Smith of Falkirk. Address to the inhabitants of New Lanark by Mr. Robert Owen. A specimen of the Friends to Religion. Letter from Matthew Sutcliffe of Leeds.

No. 17.—The Trinity out of Unity, a Dialogue dedicated to the Right Honourable, and Right Doubtful the Earl of Eldon, Lord High Chancellor of England, Protector of the Trinity in Unity, &c. Correspondence between Mr. William Burton, a Methodist Preacher, and Mr. William Clark of Ripon, Yorkshire. Simplicity against Hypocrisy—Indians and Missionaries. Tribute from C. J.

No. 18.—On the announcement of an association of Deists in Dublin. Religious Principles of the Society of Universal Benevolence. Notice of Sheffield. On Dupuis' Examination of the Apocalypse by a Friend. Letter from Charles Naseby. Methodism without its mask, or the Gentle Shepherd of Huddersfield confoundedly angry! Notice of Mr. Nield's death. Letters from Mr. Robert Armstrong of Stokesly to Mr. Carlile, and to Mr. Meek, a Unitarian Preacher of Stockton. To Mr. Carlile from N. W. of Manchester. Cautions against the natural encroachments of power, extracted from Cato's Letters. Roman Patriotism founded on injustice and the ruin of mankind, extracted from the Candid Philosopher.

No. 19.—To Correspondents. Second Letter on Dupuis by a Friend. Questions proposed by a Searcher after Truth. The advantages of freedom of speech, extracted from the Candid Philosopher. Ignorance the foundation of unequal Governments, and fostered by them designedly, extracted from Barlow's advice to the Privileged Orders. How to constitute a free Government, from Cato's Letters. The impossibility of commencing Tyrant over an armed nation convinced of the universal equality of mankind, extracted from Barlow's advice to the Privileged Orders. Commemoration of the anniversary of the Glasgow Zetetic Society, with an Ode, to the Memory of Percy Bysshe Shelley. Letter to the Editor by I. G. Letter from James Watson. Notices of publications.

No. 20.—To the sect of Christians known by the appellation of Roman Catholics. Discussion with J. E. C. Letter from and to Mr. Baxter of Sunderland. To Mr. Carlile by William Champion. To the same by J. Butler Levant. Anecdotes of Mr. Paine, communicated by Mr. William Carver of New York. On Daemonology. Extract of a private letter from a Friend.

No. 21.—To the discomfited Radical Reformers of Great Britain. Petition to the House of Commons by Mr. John Duncan Dawson and others of Beverly in Yorkshire. Proclamation!

Reasons for issuing it. Letter to Mr. Carlile from John Clarke in the Giltspur Street Compter. Case of Joseph Swan. Notice to Country Friends and all Agents.

No. 22.—Treatise on Mercury by Belloste.

No. 23.—Letter to Lord Eldon. Letter from William Holmes. Dialogue between Jehovah and Satan. Conclusion of the Treatise on Mercury. Letter by Amicus of Middlemarsh near Cerne. Discussion with Mr. James Taylor of Waterhead Mill near Oldham. On the New Church building project. Letter from Mr. James Penny of Huddersfield. Discussion with J. E. C.

No. 24.—Letter to Robert Peel, Secretary of State. Letter from Mr. Henderson of Deptford with subscription. Letter from Mr. William Smith of Bolton. Letter from Yarmouth with subscription. Correspondence between Mr. John Harper of Manchester and William Campion. Letter from Mrs. Ellison of Sheffield to Mr. Carlile. Two Fragments. Narrative of the new Series of Prosecutions. To Mr. Carlile from Humphrey Boyle. To William Campion in Newgate by R. Carlile. Norwich subscription.

No. 25.—The Trial of William Campion.

No. 26.—Trial of Thomas Jefferies and William Christopher, with Note by R. Carlile.—Trial of John O'Connor, and Richard Hassell.—Parallel between the cases of William Campion and St. Paul the Apostle.

No. 27.—Abel Bywater, a Tale. Appendix to the Parallel between St. Paul and William Campion. Letter to R. Carlile on Dupuis' Examination of the Apocalypse by a Friend. Letter from and to Mr. William Holmes of Sheffield.—Newspaper Reports. Letter to Mr. William Campion from an Enemy to Persecution.